Lisa Moten: Some professors will take a pie in the face today at 12:30 pm. What motivated the students to do today's "Time for Some Sweet Revenge!" event at the Erma Byrd Center?

Ashley Wheeler: My boyfriend is the Student President of Concord University's Social Work Organization; and, they were doing the "Time for Some Sweet Revenge!" event at the Athens main campus. I thought it sounded like a lot of fun. So, he organized it so that we could do it at the Erma Byrd Center. I served as the liaison between the Concord University Social Work Organization and the Erma Byrd Center. The monies collected (from this event) will be used to create care bags (with comfort items) for children taken from their homes by Child Protective Services (CPS).

Lisa Moten: When working with the Erma Byrd Center in the organizing of this event, was it a smooth process?

Ashley Wheeler: Definitely. Everyone was willing to help. The professors and staff were very willing to volunteer for this event.

Lisa Moten: What do you like most about taking classes at the Erma Byrd Center?

Ashley Wheeler: I like how close everyone is. You pretty much get to know everyone's name. I think you get a better relationship with your Professors with better access to them if you need assistance. There is a very friendly atmosphere at the Erma Byrd Center.
