

FULBRIGHT SCHOLAR
SPEAKS AT THE ERMA BYRD
HIGHER EDUCATION CENTER

Bluefield State College's Office of International Initiatives brings Fulbright Scholar, Dr. Senanu Rita Okuboyejo, to Nursing Students at the Erma Byrd Higher Education Center

Fulbright Scholar, Dr. Senanu Rita Okuboyejo, presents "E-Health Strategies and Methodologies in Rural Areas" to Nursing Students on Wednesday, March 22, 2017

Bluefield State College's Office of International Initiatives brings Fulbright Scholar, Dr. Senanu Rita Okuboyejo, to Nursing Students at the Erma Byrd Higher Education Center

Dr. Senanu Rita Okuboyejo presents on "E-Health Strategies and Methodologies in Rural Areas" to Professor Debbie Tonelli's nursing class on Wednesday, March 22, 2017.

Dr. Senanu Rita Okuboyejo of Nigeria, is a Fulbright Scholar in Residence at Southern University and A & M College, in Baton Rouge, LA. Dr. Senanu Rita Okuboyejo is an IT specialist and faculty member of Covenant University in Nigeria.

Dr. Senanu Rita Okuboyejo blends technology and health services, including Internet-based Health Information for Self-Care, and has shared her research at conferences in the Cameroon, Portugal, and the USA and has published in numerous peer reviewed journals worldwide.

For further information regarding this event, please contact BSC's Office of International Initiatives Coordinator, Dr. Sudhakar R. Jamkhandi, at sjamkhandi@bluefieldstate.edu.

*Note: (Specific content in this spotlight found online at:
<http://www.wvva.com/story/34710833/2017/03/09/bluefield-state-college-to-host-nigerian-scholar>)*